Shri Rajesh Pandey, Government Advocate for the State/respondent no.1.

Shri Ranbir Singh, counsel for respondent no.2.

By this writ petition filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, petitioner prays for a direction commanding the respondents to pay the salary from August 1999 with interest.

Petitioner is a teacher. She is working under the control of respondent no.2. The grievance is that her salary has not been paid from August 1999.

Counter affidavit has been filed on behalf of respondent no.2 in which it has been stated that the honorarium of Guruji has been paid to the petitioner in her bank account on 12.3.2001 (Annexure R-1).

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that full payment has not been made and there are some dues, which are still pending.

Petitioner may file detailed representation afresh before the respondents stating the dues, which have not been made for the particular period and on such representation being filed, the same shall be considered and decided by the respondents. If anything remains due, it be paid to the petitioner within 2 months.

With the direction aforesaid, this petition stands disposed of.
